Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999)

Note verbale dated 14 May 2002 from the Permanent Mission of Ireland to the United Nations addressed to the Chairman of the Committee

The Permanent Mission of Ireland to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Chairman of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) and, with reference to paragraph 6 of Security Council resolution 1390 (2002), has the honour to communicate the following information relating to the implementation of resolution 1390 (2002).

These and other Security Council resolutions are implemented in Ireland pursuant to relevant regulations of the European Community which are directly applicable in Ireland. Work is proceeding on the preparation of a regulation of the European Community to implement the measures set out in resolution 1390 (2002). Regulation (EC) 467/2001 will remain in force until this new regulation is adopted. Information with regard to national regulations adopted pursuant to Regulation (EC) 467/2001 is contained in the report of Ireland submitted to the Counter-Terrorism Committee on 21 December 2001 (S/2001/1252, annex).

Upon adoption of the regulation of the European Community implementing resolution 1390 (2002), Ireland will submit a full report to the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999).
